From time to time (and in connection with requests for quotation from Seller), Buyer may provide Seller with volume or quantity forecasts or projections for the Products or the anticipated duration of the program for which the Products are being produced. Seller acknowledges that the volume/duration projections (unlike a Material Release) are neither binding on Buyer nor evidence of a requirements contract and are based upon business variables and assumptions which may change over time or may not have been accurate at the time they were made or later. Buyer makes no presentation, warranty or guaranty of any kind or nature as to the accuracy of the volume/duration projections and Seller acknowledges that the actual volumes/duration could be significantly less or more than what was projected.

3. Cost and Payment

3.1 Cost

Prices for the Products set forth on the face of the Purchase Order are not subject to increase, including, without limitation, any increase based upon changes in raw material or component pricing or labor or overhead costs. Seller will notify Buyer in writing and will immediately adjust its invoices to reflect any price change, provided that no change will be binding on Buyer without Buyer's specific written consent.

3.5 Insolvency of Customer

In the event that Buyer's customer files or has filed against it a petition in bankruptcy or insolvency and in the course of such proceeding and in connection with an actual or threatened termination by customer of its purchase orders with Buyer, and if Buyer permits a reduction in the price paid to Buyer for goods sold to such customer to prevent a termination of a purchase order with customer, then Buyer has the right to proportionally adjust Seller's price for Products incorporated in the goods upon 60 days notice to Seller. The Purchase Order will otherwise remain in effect without modification. By written notice to Seller, Buyer may elect to have the provisions of this Section prevail over any conflicting term between Buyer and Seller.

The Products shall be merchantable and safe and fit for the Buyer's intended purposes. The Products will conform to all applicable laws, orders, regulations and standards. Buyer will receive title to the Products provided free of all liens, encumbrances, and rights of third parties (except those created by Buyer). Buyer's approval of any design, drawing, material, process or specifications will not relieve Seller of these warranties.

4.2 Seller's Quality Warranties

Seller warrants conformity to the quality control standards and inspection system, as well as related standards and systems (including quality control policies, QS 9000, ISO 9000 and TS16949:2002) that are established or directed by Buyer. Products or Services that do not conform to the warranties in Section 4 will be handled by Buyer as follows: (1) reject the nonconforming Products or Services, (2) require Seller, at Buyer's option and Seller's expense (including applicable shipping costs), to either repair or replace the nonconforming Products or Services, and (3) if Buyer reasonably determines (through statistical sampling or other quality assessments) that a material amount of incoming Products are non-conforming or if Buyer receives subsequent defective material, Buyer will require Seller to implement at its expense containment, inspection, sorting, and other quality assurance procedures. To the full extent possible, Buyer will provide Seller access to any available warranty data related to the Products and to any available field-returned Products. Payment for nonconforming Products is not an acceptance, and does not limit or impair Buyer's right to assert any legal or equitable remedy, and does not relieve Seller's responsibility for latent defects. If, after the implementation of the above, Buyer is still not satisfied with the quality of the Products or Services from Seller, then Buyer shall have the right to terminate the Purchase Order without liability.

6. Recall

Recall applies to any voluntary or government-mandated offer by Buyer to remedy an alleged defect that affects safety, quality or performance or to address an alleged failure to comply with any applicable safety standard, requirement or guideline. If Seller is liable for a Recall, the extent of Seller's liability will be negotiated on a case-by-case basis based on (1) a good faith allocation of responsibility for the Recall, (2) the reasonableness of the costs and damages incurred, (3) the quantity purchased and Purchase Order price of the affected Products, and (4) other relevant factors. Buyer will notify Seller as soon as practicable after Buyer learns in writing that a Recall being considered which implicates the Products, and thereafter provide Seller with all data relating to the potential Recall, and give Seller a reasonable opportunity to participate in inquiries and discussions among Buyer, its customer, and governmental agencies, and consult with Seller about the most cost-effective method of modifying or replacing the Products in order to remedy the alleged defect or non-compliance. In the event Buyer's customer sets-off the cost of a Recall against sums due to Buyer and Buyer determines, in good faith, that the Recall was caused by the failure of the Products to conform to the warranties in Section 4, Buyer may set-off the costs of the Recall against sums due to Seller prior to the negotiations set forth.

If a Purchase Order remains in effect at the end of the production program, Seller will also make those Products available to Buyer and/or Buyer's customer for Buyer's past-model service requirements for a period of 10 years after the end of the vehicle production program, or as long as the Buyer's customer requires service parts.
